A CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all our relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us in the sad loss of the death of our dear son, Winchester, who departed this life, July 18, 1915. Especially do we thank Dr. Stevens and Foro College.

Mrs. Georgina Winchester and her Daughters.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Lucile Washington, who departed this life, July 16, 1915.

Oh, dear, dear, sweetest baby, since you have passed away, it seems not like it's two years ago, but only yesterday.

When we speak your loving name, our hearts with tears are wet, Oh, baby, how we loved you, and love cannot forget.

The Lord took you from us, it was his holy will, and we cannot but leave you and let our hearts be a vacancy, which no one else can fill.

But in our saddest moments, our happy thought holds away. We will meet again, dear baby, and be happy some sweet day.

Sadly missed by Mother, Sister and Relatives.

A CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McElroy desire to heartily thank their pastor, Dr. W. S. Brooks, and their many friends who were so exceedingly kind and rendered such invaluable assistance; also for the beautiful floral designs, upon the death of their dear son, Archie J. McElroy.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

A great congregation greeted the pastor, Dr. F. F. Martin, upon his first appearance in his pulpit, last Sunday morning, since his return from his vacation. The choir had prepared special music, which was beautifully rendered, and the pastor preached a powerful sermon, which deeply impressed the congregation and brought forward two candidates for baptism.

Another large audience was out at the evening service, and again the pastor was at his best, with a most unique and edifying sermon.

Next Sunday, Dr. Martin will preach both morning and night.

CHARLIE MILLS

Popular Manager of the Giants, and owner of Keystone Cafe and Garden.

CARLINVILLE TEAM DUE TO GET THEIR SUNDAY

If Jupiter Pluvius will just condescend to go on a vacation Sunday, and let the Giants play, Manager Mills, his speed boys, and about 5,000 loyal fans will get an opportunity to realize the long-sought revenge on the now famous Carlville team for its defeat of our prides a couple of weeks ago. Determined to show up this aggregation of future major league stars has caused Kuebler and Mills to book them again for next Sunday. Last Sunday's game was prevented by rain and probably the biggest attendance of the season was disappointed. Everybody believes the Giants only lost the game with the Carlville boys Sunday, the 11th, on account of the crippled condition of several of its star players, and the fans have been anxious to see their opinion vindicated. The Carlville team is the strongest semi-pro aggregation in the West, has several members under the eye of the big league, and two already signed. It will be no discredit to them to fall before the Giants' big guns, yet it can be well expected that they will fight hard to maintain the fluke reputation they gained July 11. The game Sunday, at Kuebler's Park will start at 3 o'clock and a record crowd is the indication.

The Giants will play in Dexter, Mo., Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The citizens have a home gathering. No colored people live there and Mills and his boys will stop at a white hotel.

The Giants have won four straight games in the city (Saturday) League. It is rumored that Manager Slack, of the East St. Louis Giants, who withdrew from the Interstate League a few days ago, will also withdraw his team from the City League to play Mills' team a series of games. It does it will wrap up the Saturday combination.

The Giants, with 20 men, including Manager Mills, Owner Kuebler, Chas. (Dumny) Stanley, two ticket men and fifteen players, will leave St. Louis August 14 for a tour of the East. The schedule consists of games at Indianapolis, with the A. B. C. team, August 15, 16, 17; Columbus, O., 18, 19, 20; Cuba, in Camden, N. J., 21; Lincoln Giants in N. Y., 22; Asbury Park, N. J., 23, 24; Lincoln Giants, 25, 26, 27; Atlantic City, Sept. 1, 2, 3; American Giants in Chicago, 2, 3; return home Sept. 8. Manager Mills has secured two new players for the team, but is concealing their names. Mills will meet the team in Columbus, as he will have charge of the K. of P. commissary car on the way to the escapement there.

Cobb, one of the Giants' catchers, was called to Reno, Miss. Tuesday, on account of the serious illness of his mother.

The Maroon Giants, a baseball team composed primarily of Summer-High players has won all of its eight games this summer. They play the Walton Blues at Fairgrounds Park next Sunday at 3 p. m.

SUNDAY MORNING BASE BALL

Get some fresh air Sunday morning. Ride to Kuebler's Park, 6100 N. Broadway and see the Union Electric play ball. Game called 10 a. m. Admission 10 cents. W. T. Bradford, Mgr.

GREEN & PUGH

At the Booker Washington this week.

The show at the Booker Washington this week fits well in the best this house has offered in a long time. Every act is good, so good in fact that position on the bill has little to do with the selection of a "feature act." Regardless of the hot weather, Mr. Turpin and his force of attendants are kept busy caring for the big attendances, especially on Mondays and Thursdays, which are pay days.

Tommie Parker and La Blanche Young open the show. Their act is made up of some really humorous dialogue, artistic and eccentric dancing and some very good singing by Miss Young, who has a strong and well-trained voice. Miss Young makes a decided hit singing, "Every Woman's Got a Man But Me," and Mr. Parker cleans up with his song and dance, "Aha Daba Honey-moon." The act closes strong. Isabella and Glenn have a comedy vehicle that affords good opportunity for Mr. Glenn to display his ridiculous eccentricities. The playlet is formed around a family quarrel and presents several funny situations before it is finally settled satisfactorily. They do considerable singing, keep up a continuous merriment and leave the stage in a burst of applause.

Thelma, female impersonator, is a decided deception. His makeup, that of a pink-faced World, is so perfect that the eye cannot penetrate the disguise. He wears a handsome costume and with a fine soprano voice sings, "Good-bye, My Love, Good-bye," "Raging the Baby to Sleep," and "You Won't My Heart." He ranks well with the best in the art.

Queen and Pugh, straight comedians, stylishly dressed, close the show with a neatly arranged act of songs, dances, imitations and humorous dialogues. Mr. Pugh makes a tremendous hit singing the late George Walker's song, "That's Why They Call Me Shine." His stage prancing strikes the audience just right. Mr. Green scents singing, "You're More Than the World to Me." They close with a duet on their "Zaboes" and go big.

CENTRAL BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTING JULY 28

Annual Affair at O'Fallon Park. Grounds 1 and 2. Athletic Features. Baseball Games Between Married and Single Ladies.

The annual outing of the Central Baptist Sunday-school will be given at O'Fallon Park, grounds 1 and 2, July 28. We realize that this is one of the attractions that claims the attention of many St. Louisans who spend the summer at home. Therefore we aim at making it worth your while, by having everything thoroughly and carefully arranged for your pleasure. There will be a strictly high-grade athletic program from 2 o'clock until 6. Baseball, Central vs. Antioch (boys), dashes from 25 to 100 yards, primary and junior department; basket ball, crack team; drill, needle and thread races (women) and last, but not the best of all the day's events, will close with a game of baseball between the single ladies and married ladies, this year one's effort to miss. Good music will serve to keep your sentimental nature engrossed throughout the day, together with the choicest refreshments of the season. Everybody is welcome. It will be just like going out with the family to you. Come and have a "bally" time at our expense and remember this is the "School that helps," whose motto is "Only once a stranger."
